

Report on Global Perspectives in Convergence Education

A “Global Perspectives in Convergence Education” Workshop was held 2-3 November, 2017 in Washington DC. It was cosponsored by NSF, OECD, NASEM and the University of Southern California. The report of the workshop contains a number of action items that will be summarized. A website for Convergence Education, one of the action items, has been created.